Submitting an application

The customer shall submit an application for the withdrawal of the petition in the administrative procedure before the substantive decision or the decision to terminate the proceedings is finalized. The application for the withdrawal of the application shall be forwarded to the relevant and competent authority in the applicant's case.

No attachment to the application is required.

The procedure is free of charge.

Processing an application

An application for revocation of an application shall be examined by the competent authority. If it finds that the decision of the substance of the public administration case (the decision terminating the proceedings) has not yet become final, the authority will terminate the procedure and send the decision containing the termination to the customer. During the procedure no personal appearance is necessary.
