

ANOTHER VICTIM OF THE BOAT CRASH IDENTIFIED

The woman found at the Makad section of the Danube was also a passenger of the Hableány

The patrols of the search team reported on 05 July 2019 at 11:55 that a corpse was found in the riverwash of the Danube in the region of Makad. The identification of the body was carried out, the woman searched as a missing person so far is a victim of the Danube boat accident of 29 May 2019.

Participants of the search are still looking for one South Korean passenger on the Danube from the Margaret Bridge to the southern state border.