

Further identifications

A Hungarian crew member was found near the Liberty Bridge the corps of one of the South Korean passengers was found at the area of Érd settlement.

In the morning hours of 06 June 2019 the corps of a South Korean woman found at the area of Érd settlement was identified. In the evening the Hungarian male victim found near the Liberty Bridge of Budapest was also identified. Both are the victims of the accidents on 29 May 2019.

Search is still ongoing for 8 South Korean passengers and a Hungarian crew member on the entire Southern part of the Danube.

On the attached map can be seen the places where the corpses were found.